

WE PRODUCE ROOF RIDGE CLOSING TILE

Roof ridge covering tile is a roof accessory used in 2 and 3 facade roofs. It is used at the side eaves (shield façade) points where horizontal ridge starts and ends at the junction of the roof tiles in the ridge area of the roof. The purpose of use is to create an aesthetic roof image by providing integrity with the side eaves roof tiles on the side eaves of the roof by closing the opening in the roof ridge tile applied horizontally.
